FIRST NATIONAL CONFERENCE

Grassroots America Defends the Bill of Rights

If you care about threats to civil liberties since September 11, 2001, save the dates:

Saturday & Sunday
October 18th-19th, 2003
Washington, DC

Join delegates from community groups, elected officials, religious organizations, unions, students, advocacy groups, and others from across the U.S. to help advance and broaden the Bill of Rights defense movement.

Following the conference's two days of tactical and strategic policy workshops, there will be a people's advocacy day (Monday, October 20) on Capitol Hill in which conferees will meet with their congressional delegations.

More information will be available soon on the Bill of Rights Defense Committee's web site, www.bordc.org.
