

Urgent action needed
RESTORE HABEAS CORPUS!

In September 2006, the U.S. Congress passed the Military Commissions Act, undermining 800 years of human rights by abolishing habeas corpus – a right that empowers prisoners to question why they are being held, and to demand evidence showing reason to detain them.

Military Commissions Act
National Call-In to Congress Week
March 19-23, 2007

During the week of March 19-23, please phone both your Senators and your Representative. Ask them to act to restore habeas corpus, and other fundamental rights abolished by the Military Commissions Act, by co-sponsoring legislation, by holding hearings, and by using their public office to speak out in support of the re-establishment of basic human rights!

Capitol Switchboard Number is: 202-224-3121
Operators will connect to your legislators' offices 24 hours a day.

Find more info and direct line phone numbers at:
<http://www.bordc.org/threats/mca-call-in.php>

Here are some of the restorations needed:

- Habeas Corpus for all those imprisoned, whether in or outside the U.S.
- No testimony allowed if gained by torture or coercion.
- Due process must be accorded any person being named as an enemy combatant.
- Re-establish the Geneva Conventions as the primary law of war.

Partial list of organizations supporting the call-in are American Civil Liberties Union, Bill of Rights Defense Committee, Friends Committee on National Legislation, National Religious Campaign Against Torture, and the Stop Torture Coalition.
